CEDAR CREATIONS: On Sunday, March 22, two magnificent cedar sculptures were unveiled to the public. Moon Shadow and Sun Shadow were crafted by Oregon sculptor Mick Brownlee. Another highlight of the event was the dedication and ringing of the Kookaburra Lodge's bells. The bells and sculptures are part of the Kookaburra Lodge's extensive art program. On hand for the ceremony were Senator Nancy Greene Raine, Tourism Sun Peaks' Al Raine and Christopher Nicolson, Darcy Alexander and Anne Haight from Sun Peaks Resort Corporation and developers Jim and Paul Farrell.
